13. ☐ Immediately after talking to Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, House Armed Services Committee, I called John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and told him that the House Armed Services Committee had released General Walters' statement.   Goldsmith told me that the Senate Committee would now release copies to the various requestors in the Senate.

14. ☐ Following a discussion with the Director, General Walters, and Messrs. Colby, ☐ Carver, Houston and I, Colby called Senator Stuart Symington regarding the request, via Richard Moose of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, for Sam Adams to appear before the Senator's Subcommittee on Security Agreements and Commitments Abroad, on Friday, 18 May 1973.   The Senator agreed to make clear for the record that Adams would not be speaking for the Agency, but merely in his individual capacity.   Colby also called attention to the security problems that will arise if Adams appeared in open session.
